ALL STOCK IS WEAK

The Decrease in Railway Earnings Was the Cause.

ATCHISON STOCK WAS RAIDED.

Industries in Sympathy With the Railroads—Wheat and Other Cereals Lower—Provisions Weak.

New York, Dec. 5.—Money on call easy, ranging from 1 to 1½; last loan at 1½ per cent and closing offered at 1½ per cent.

Prime mercantile paper 4½ to 5 per cent.

Bair silver, 20¢ to 25¢.

Mexican dollars, 55¢ to 60¢.

Sterling exchange is firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $150 to $145½ for sixty days and $140 to $138½ for demand.

Government bonds easier; state bonds lower; railroad bonds weaker.

Silver certificates at the board was noted.

London sent a sensational rumor about Atchison before the opening here, cable advices alleging that a receivership for the company was imminent. It was said that Atchison had been unable to borrow money to meet the $30,000,000 interest due on January 1.

In addition the railway earnings to hand for the fourth week and month of November were uniformly unfavorable.

London backed its opinion by Atchison's financial condition, selling something like 10,000 shares of the stock. Atchison securities sold at their lowest in the first hour of business when the stock touched 15½. At that figure, the market showed a loss of 2½, accompanied with a downward trend. The falling off in railway earnings led to a recession of 3½ to 4½ in other issues. In the last hour of business, General Electric, Cotton Oil, Lead, Western Union and St. Paul and Omaha developed weakness and sold at the lowest point of the day. General Electric fell 10¢, Cotton Oil 10¢, Western Union 10¢, and the division's 5¢ dropped to 10. The market closed weak. The total sales were 191,529 shares. Net losses ranged from 1½ to 2 per cent. The pressure to sell Atchison abated when it was announced that President Reinhardt had cabled from London that the stories about the financial embarrassment of the company were unfounded.

New York Produce.

New York, Dec. 5.—Flours—Market more active, held firm; winter wheat, low grades, $2.00 to $2.40.

Wheat—Spot market quiet and steady; options advanced 1¢ on cable and foreign buying, fell 5¢ on local realizing, advanced 1¢ and closed steady at 55¢ to 56¢ under yesterday's trading.

Government bonds easier; state bonds lower; railroad bonds weaker.

Silver certificates at the board was noted.
